Academic Research Method:

The Global University Alliance Approach

- Research methods and design concepts is important to both academia and industry.
- Knowledge exchange between these two parties is both mutually beneficial.
- It is continuous, bi-directional and symmetrical.
- Different in nature but equally valuable.
- Collaborative.
- Require rigorous construction of “Artefacts”

THE GLOBAL GOALS For Sustainable Development

Think Globally: Act locally

Increasingly important in Education, Government Corporation, Society and Research; regardless your area of interest.

It is students who are our future, therefore understanding the concept of "think globally, act locally" is fundamental to our future

Engage Personally ...Dare to Do the Unusual

❖ Dare to Think ... Global solutions come ONLY from globally robust mind

❖ Think Solutions not Complaints

❖ Be Unrestraint in knowledge acquisition

❖ Be Unapologetically Fearless in taking up challenges

❖ Do not wait or leave for an abstract others .. There's no one else but you!

❖ Be determinedGlobal Solutions don't become global at the outset

❖ Be Resoundingly critical of your output (results) and AVOID Shortcuts

...Above all Else, those aspiring to be global must start early
...and that's NOW!
