Our mandate is all about raising a new generational leaders.

The Purple colour symbolises royalty which enjoys dominance in the configuration of our flag while the white colour symbolises spirituality, its anchor being the fear of God and love for fellow men.

From The Chancellor

INTRODUCTION

May I welcome you to this historic occasion of the first convocation ceremony of Covenant University in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Covenant University in about four years of its existence has made impressive marks in the tracks of Higher Education in Nigeria and Africa. Our landmark accomplishments are highlighted below:

- Emergence as Best University in the Verification visit by the National Universities Commission in August 2001, qualifying the University to operate as a fully licensed University.
- The first University to date to start on its permanent site, with full scale functional infrastructure in place at resumption and within four years now boasts of a world class campus.
- The First Private University in Nigeria to run full courses in every ambit of Engineering.
- Emerging as overall best University in the National Universities Commission Accreditation, the apex regulatory body for University education in Nigeria. All the 16 academic programmes presented were accredited. The University was rated overall best in the nationwide accreditation exercise conducted in 2005.

- CU emerges Best Private University in Nigeria (2005)

By the National Universities Commission, the University ranked number one among the 23 private universities in the country.

- CU is rated as Most Preferred University among the Private Universities in the country by candidates seeking university admission through the Joint Admissions and Matriculation Board (JAMB).

Invitation to be a member of the Commonwealth Education Partnership. This provides international leverage and exposure for the linkage and collaborations with 53 (fifty-three) Commonwealth Member countries. It also provides opportunities for staff and students to participate in various conferences organized by the Commonwealth Member countries. Covenant University will also participate in the Commonwealth Education Partnership Conference coming up in December 2006 in South Africa.

- A number of Faculty/Staff Recognition. Our staff have won Fulbright Fellowship Award and the Senior Fulbright Scholar-in-Residence Fellowship for the 2005- 2006 academic calendar. The Fellowship took Dr Ayam to various institutions of higher learning in the State of Oregon, USA.

- International Scholarship Award

An international scholarship award to attend training in Bio-informatics at the University of Cologne, Germany for one year, starting from April 2006 to March 2007. The scholarship, which is extended to a maximum of 30 participants across the globe, covers living expenses for the duration of the programme.

- International Exhibition for Young Inventors

Two Covenant University students in the College of Science and Technology won awards at the International Exhibition for Young Inventors winning in Japan. They won 1st and 3rd prizes for the University Category, that was held in 2004. Future Creation Award in August 2004 during the commemoration of Japan Institute of Inventions and Innovations 100th Anniversary. The Award was the outcome of a highly exceptional creative work exhibited by both students and was adjudged "capable of conveying the significance and pleasure of invention to countless young people around the World" by the Organizers of the Exhibition.

The Award was formally presented to the two students at the Workshop of Young Inventors in June 2006 here at Covenant University.

- Students Awards/Recognition Commonwealth Essay Competition

A Grade A Certificate in the 2005 Commonwealth Essay Competition.

- The Covenant University VC emerged Best Vice Chancellor in Nigeria in 2005

Prof Obayan emerged the best Vice Chancellor in the Private Universities category following a rigorous assessment set up by NUC to commemorate the Nigerian University System Annual Merit Award 2005.

CONCLUSION

From the data presented above, we do not consider Covenant University as a mere tertiary institution but a revolution in education. Without any doubt, this award-winning university is set to become a world-class university within a record time.

I am glad you made time out to celebrate with us today as Covenant University graduates her pioneer graduates with 726 in the first degree cadre and 21 in the masters cadre.

Therefore, on behalf of the Board of Regents of Covenant University, I welcome you to this August occasion.

Have a pleasant time with us.

Welcome!

— Dr. David Oyedepo

From The Vice Chancellor

THE RELEASE OF EAGLES

Today the 28th of July, 2006, we celebrate the first phase of the actualization of the Covenant University visionary mandate of raising a New Generation of Leaders for the Nigerian, African and Global Contexts. The evolving phenomenon that Covenant University has become as enumerated in the foreword written by the Chancellor of Covenant University Dr David Oyedepo's is one that has focused on revolutionizing the context of Higher Education in Nigeria, in driving a qualitative and integrated mode of education, that is set both to offer excellent education and skills training relevant to the realities and needs of the outside world of living and work.

In the last four years at Covenant University, this process of driving an educational curriculum that is not just about offering education for its own sake, not just about graduating students and offering them certificates at the end of their programme. Rather, it is about delivering an educational package that is functional and productive. This is what we present here today in our graduating set.

Every generation inherits a new set of challenges. In Africa, the challenges of this generation is that of constructing and reconstructing pathways for the reengineering platform for Human Development processes on the Continent. Our mandate as a University therefore is to revolutionize the educational landscape of Africa in enabling productive exploits in knowledge creation. In addressing the inherent and current gaps of our educational process and practice today, the sustenance of a distinctive and qualitative learning experience is what we have set out to address in almost four years of our existence.

At Covenant University, our chosen tool in this reconstruction process is the instrumentation of a robust and holistic approach to education as we drive a philosophy of change. The emerging change paradigm calls for innovation, creativity, and a pioneering spirit of charting pathways. It was Dr Nnamdi Azikiwe who said in 1960 that "intellectual brilliance in the university is useless, unless specific contributions after graduation justify it" Today, the Charter set of our Covenant University students are being released as Eagles with the mandate of World Changers, Trail Blazers and Solution Providers following after the path of being raised as a new generation of Leaders. Eagles are made for the high places, eagles do not fly, they soar.

As we celebrate with our first set of graduands, their families and well wishers, I commend the persons who have by their various commitments worked together to make this day a reality. Covenant University over the last four years has been a University on a mission. In this process, we have required the understanding and support of many and the unflinching commitment of Faculty and Staff, the inspiration of the Endowment Council and Working Group, Board of Regents, the Winners' Family worldwide, the Visionary and transformational leadership of our Chancellor, Dr David Oyedepo. Today, all has come to fruition as we gather to celebrate and acknowledge the Good Hand of God in this Graduation Ceremony. We are confident in the products, hence "the Release of Eagles" as our theme song. Once again, I welcome you to this season, the season of the release of Eagles for Flight.

— Prof. Aize Obayan

The Mandate

"Raising a new generation of leaders through a qualitative and life-applicable training system that focuses on value and skill development."

"Raising a new generation of leaders through a broad based qualitative education built on sound biblical principles culminating in the birth of path-finders, pace-setters and trail-blazers."

"Raising a new generation of leaders who shall redeem the battered image of the black race and restore her lost glory as these trained army of reformers begin to build the old waste, repair the wasted cities and raise the desolation of many generations."

Mission Statements

- To train students who will be mentally resourceful, intellectually equipped, entrepreneurially self-dependent, futuristically visionary, responsibility sensitive and emotionally stable.
- To train and equip men and women to face the challenges of life via the university's underlying ethos and unique curriculum.
- To have a human development based curriculum with emphasis on the development of the total man. To provide an integrated, life applicable and value driven curriculum considered relevant to societal needs and aspirations.
- To spear-head a revolution in education.

Our Founding Philosophy

In response to the global demand for a needed departure from dogmatism to dynamism in the existing educational system, the Covenant University will be built on this philosophical platform:

A departure from 'Form' to 'Skill'

A departure from 'knowledge' to 'empowerment'

A departure from 'figures' to 'future-building'

A departure from 'legalism' to 'realism'

A departure from 'points' to 'facts'

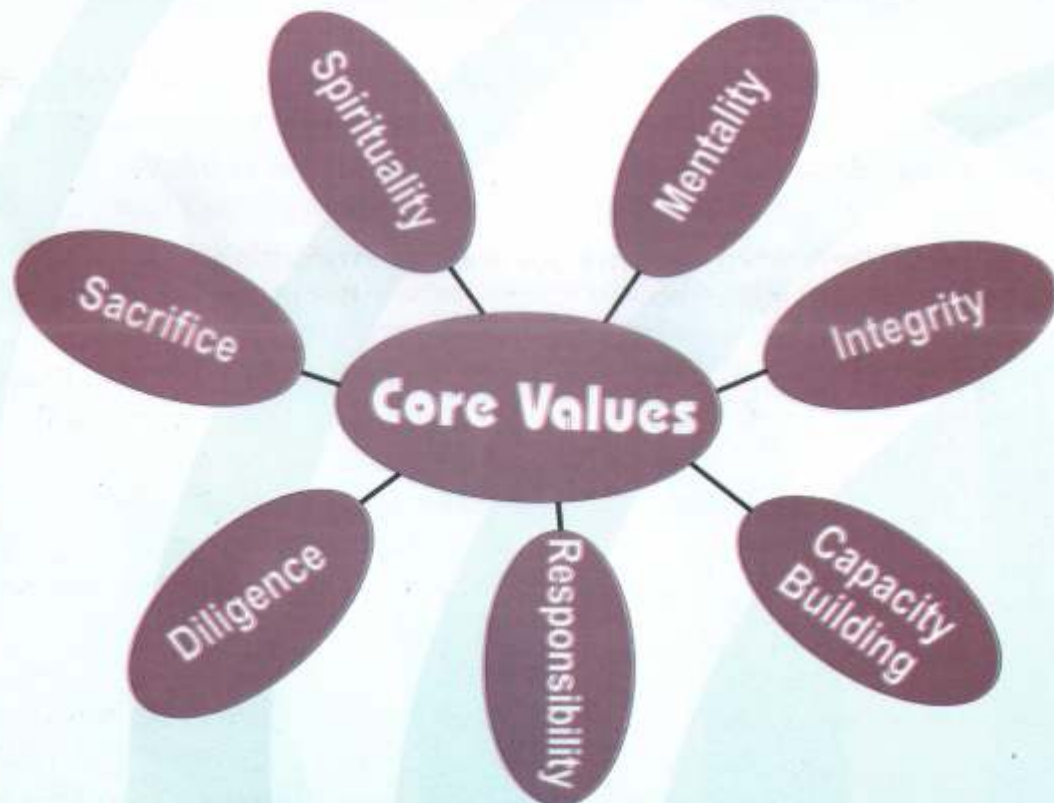

A departure from 'mathe-matics' to 'life-matics'.

This is what informs our motto "Promoting Mental Productivity".

Covenant University Core Values

Our core values are listed below:

- Spirituality
- Mentality
- Integrity
- Capacity-Building
- Responsibility
- Diligence
- Sacrifice

Our Name: Covenant University

All over Africa in general and Nigeria in particular, great significance is attached to names, be they of places or persons. In many parts of the country, names of persons reflect circumstances of their birth or events that occur in the environment of birth. Names portray meanings and carry important messages. This is also true for the Covenant University.

The word Covenant reflects the intention of the proprietors of the University, to enter into a binding agreement with students to deliver their desires for excellence and career exploits.

The word has been chosen to express our total commitment with a vow to perform our best in the process of making The Total Man.

The University intends to uphold a binding agreement with its students to offer them the best and with their parents and guardians by giving them the best value for their investment.

Covenant University vows to deliver expert thinkers, unusual managers, and hyper resourceful technocrats in all fields of human endeavour. The University is by this bound by an oath to be the best.

The commitment to creating The Total Man is a direct result of this vow and agreement between students and the proprietors of Covenant University. The commitment is enshrined in the motto and the logo of the University.

TO GOD BE THE GLORY

1. To God be the glory, great things he hath done!
So loved he the world that he gave us his Son,
who yielded his life an atonement for sin,
and opened the lifegate that all may go in.

Refrain:

*Praise the Lord, praise the Lord,
let the earth hear his voice!
Praise the Lord, praise the Lord,
let the people rejoice!
O come to the Father thru Jesus the Son,
and give him the glory, great things he hath done!*

2. O perfect redemption, the purchase of blood,
to every believer the promise of God;
the vilest offender who truly believes,
that moment from Jesus a pardon receives.
(Refrain)
3. Great things he hath taught us, great things he hath done,
and great our rejoicing thru Jesus the Son;
but purer, and higher, and greater will be our wonder, our transport, when Jesus we see.
(Refrain)
