Covenant University 11th Convocation Ceremony

A WORD OF WELCOME FROM THE CHANCELLOR

It is with great pleasure that I welcome you to this grand 11th Convocation Ceremony of Covenant University as we celebrate the release of the 11th batch of Eagles. Every year, we gather to acknowledge the good hand of God on the University as He leads us from one level of glory to another. Not only has the University never known a better yesterday, it has continued to enjoy greater levels of achievements that make those of the previous years appear ordinary. To God alone be all the glory!

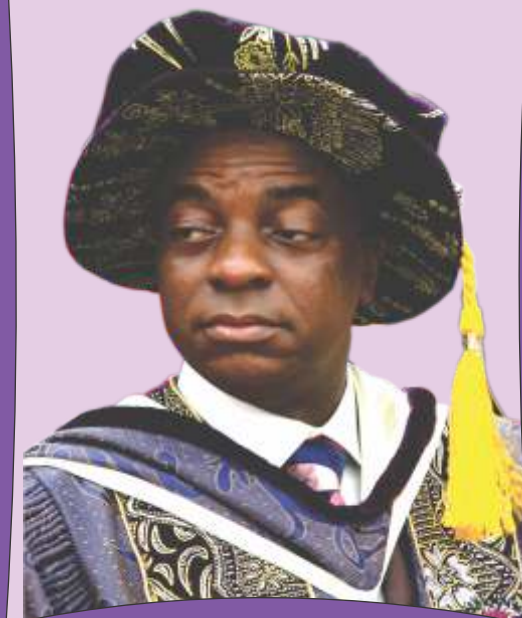

Covenant University has continued to emerge as a clear leader on the national and global scene. This is in tandem with the University's visionary mandate to become one of the top ten universities in the world by the year 2022, fondly dubbed Vision 1-of-10-in-10. What God has enabled the University to achieve within the first four years of the pursuit of this vision assures us that it is not only achievable but it is a "done deal".

In our drive for excellence, Covenant University has continued to blaze the trail and extend the frontiers of knowledge through research. Emphasis has been placed on converting research into tangible problem-solving products and our efforts have yielded laudable results. Hence, Covenant University has added to its existing catalogue of patents the development of Zeolite-Y using Elefun Clay, with other 16 applications for patent filed with the National Office for Technology Acquisition and Promotion (NOTAP).

The novelty of the research-based inventions of Covenant University has been acclaimed and rewarded with several national and global awards. A few of these awards are 3 Gold Medals for the Energy Retention Bags, Solar Powered Weather Station and Green Luminaire at the World Innovation and Invention Forum, Yancheng, China in 2015; 1 Gold and 2 Silver Medals at the 67th IENA International Trade Fair for "Ideas, Inventions and New Products", Nuremberg, Germany in 2015 and the Raw Materials Research and Development Council (RMFDC)/Nigerian Universities Research and Development Fair (NURESDEF) Awards in 2016 in Nigeria. Therefore, to ensure that the University continues to chart the course for solution-oriented research, this 11th Convocation Ceremony has witnessed the strategic commissioning of the 6-storey structure that will house the Covenant University Centre for Research, Innovation and Discovery (CUCRID) and the endowed Centres of Excellence in Biotechnology, Bioinformatics as well as Information and Communication Technology for Systems Research and Corporate Governance.

Now more than ever, the consequences of poor leadership have become fatal in our nation, continent and the global community. Hence, Covenant University, an institution that is committed to raising a new generation of leaders, has introduced a Certificate in Leadership Development Programme for its Postgraduate students. We all agree that the problem of Africa is leadership but only few people are doing anything about it. This Certificate Course will, therefore, instill in the students the virtues that make for selfless and contribution-oriented leadership.

DR. DAVID O. OYEDEPO
CHANCELLOR AND CHAIRMAN, BOARD OF REGENTS

As we celebrate God's faithfulness and giant strides in the life of the University, we remain committed to driving the vision that birthed the Institution, which is to see a new educational system that will graduate agents of transformation in all spheres of human endeavour.

Once again, you are welcome to witness the release of another set of nation builders and world changers. Enjoy your stay in Covenant University and remain blessed.

Dr. David O. Oyedepo
Chancellor, Covenant University

Covenant University 11th Convocation Ceremony

THE VICE-CHANCELLOR'S WELCOME ADDRESS

It is with joy and profound gratitude to God that I welcome you to the 11th Convocation Ceremony of Covenant University, tagged the "Release of Eagles 2016". We thank God for the various accomplishments since the beginning of this academic session, and indeed since the inception of this administration four years ago. By implication, this is the fourth year on our quest for the actualization of Vision 10:2022.

To the glory of God and by His divine direction, we have instituted strategic goals that distinguished us as clear leaders among the comity of universities not only in Nigeria but Africa in general.

Some of these strategic goals include:

- Compulsory Internship for all students to gain industry experience;
- Additional certifications in ICT, Leadership, Entrepreneurship and Foreign language;

PROFESSOR CHARLES K. AYO

In our drive to proffer solutions to the myriad of problems ravaging our nation Nigeria and the African continent, Covenant University hosted her 3rd International Conference on African Development Issues, CU-ICADI 2016. This edition was unique in that it was a brainstorming session about Africa, by Africans and for Africans. We had insightful presentations from former President Olusegun Obasanjo and the Keynote Presenter, Professor Joy Ogwu. The conference enjoyed a rich participation from 10 countries, 14 higher institutions and 8 corporate organizations. Indeed, Africa will soon emerge as a world leader by the grace of God.

These catalogues of great achievements are nothing but the hand of God in driving the mandate that He delivered to us that Covenant University will emerge as one of the top 10 universities in the world by 2022. For man it may seem impossible, but with God, all things are possible.

It is on this note that I wish to congratulate, first of all, the parents and guardians of our beloved students. You have partnered with us to deliver to the world a new breed of world changers. You have invested in quality education for your wards and you deserve the joy of today. I congratulate you our dear eagles that are about to soar. You have been found worthy in learning and in character. May the joy of today be the least you will ever experience as you soar to unspeakable heights in Jesus name. Amen. To our esteemed faculty and staff, behold the great work that the Lord has used you to do. May you never lose your reward in Jesus name. Amen.

Finally, to our guests and well-wishers, thank you for coming to celebrate the release of the next generation of leaders at this 11th Convocation Ceremony of Covenant University. Your presence has added colour and beauty to our event. Thank you and God bless.
