

Opoko, A. P. (2006): Prospects and Challenges of Local Building Materials Development and Use in Nigeria. The Professional Builder – journal of the Nigerian Institute of Building.

Abstract

Nigeria has a rich deposit of local resources which can be harnessed for housing development of their resources remain untapped. This paper based on the author's experience in building research and development in Nigeria identifies the prospects and challenges of harnessing these resources for housing development in Nigeria.